

ShorTS International Film Festival

24th edition / Trieste, 1 - 8 July 2023

THE WINNERS OF THE 24th EDITION

Serpetatiyen neqewimi by Ramazan Kılıç (Turkey 2023)

MAREMETRAGGIO SECTION

EstEnergy – Gruppo Hera Award / Best short film - 4.000 euro

(Jury members: Leonardo Martinelli, Valentina Otormin Dall'Oglio, Yannis Sakaridis)

Serpetatiyen neqewimi by Ramazan Kılıç (Turkey 2023)

«For the bravery of telling this story of a family in a remote village that reflects a strong political and social issue. A young generation full of hope, fantasy and strength that puts a smile back to their grandparents standing against a repressive regime».

Special Mention for Animation

Amok by Balázs Turai (Hungary, Romania 2022)

«For the creation of an oniric and allegorical world, with stunning visuals, exploring colors and vibrant forms».

Special Mention for Mise en scène

Obesk by Jonas Smulders (The Netherlands 2022)

«For the mise en scène, stunning cinematography and performances that is capable of diving us in an otherworldly dizzy atmosphere between nightmare and b&w photography».

Special mention

Flores del otro patio by Jorge Cadena (Switzerland, Colombia 2022)

«For the way the film approaches political and social conflicts showcasing the impact of colonialism in Latin America with a poetic perspective».

Shorts TV Award

Serpetatiyen neqewimi by Ramazan Kılıç (Turkey 2023)

«A widescreen glimpse into a world most westerners can only imagine where access to the most basic of TV broadcasts is an almost essential service, especially for the elderly. The combination of traditional storytelling and the broken TV frame used was a wonderful juxtaposition and the young actress was an energetic and inspirational character».

Special mention

Rang e zard by Elham Ehsas (Afghanistan, United Kingdom 2023)

«An oppressive patriarchal regime is no match for the power of love».

Best feature film as chosen by the audience
